The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC # 112

Art Unit: 1731

Claims 17-20, 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 17 is not understood because it is impossible. It requires that the method be repeated in the first step. But one cannot repeat the method of claim 1 until all of the steps are completed. The first step is completed before the method is completed. One can only repeat the method AFTER the method is complete. One cannot repeat the method in the middle of the method (i.e. prior to the method being complete).

Claim 18, refers to steps 1-5 being "multi-copied" was long until the particles' size profile shows the specified broad distribution." This language is indefinite because it is not clear when such a profile would be attained because no "specified broad distribution" is "specified."

Claim 19 refers to the particles being reformed into their "original" shapes in a 'limited specific way.' This is deemed to be indefinite. First, it is not clear what the "original" shape of the particles was, so it is not clear what the particles are being reformed into. Secondly- it is not clear what the "limited specific way" encompasses. No 'limited specific way' is delineated. Claim 19 requires that all of the steps are "completed tempering"; this is not understood because only steps 2-3 are tempering; steps 1, 4-6 have no tempering, thus they have no "completed tempering"

Claim 20 refers to ions which are embedded, but it is not clear if these are the metal ions that are referred to in steps 1 and 4 or if steps 1 ions are different from step 4's ions.

Claim 25 refers to the glass being stretched, but it is not clear if this stretching is meant to be the step 6, deforming step or a separate step.

Claim 26 refers to "a continuous deforming process" which is of confusing antecedent basis. IT is unclear if it further defines the deforming of claim 16, or if it is an additional deforming step.

Claim 26 also refers to "after drawing" which lacks antecedent basis which makes it unclear as to whether any drawing is required.

Response to Arguments

The discussion regarding claim 18 is not understood as to its relevance to the rejection. The claim refers to "the specified broad distribution" and there is no mention of it being attained. Therefore it is unclear if it must be attained. To put it another way - there is no antecedent basis for "the specified broad distribution".

The discussion/arguments regarding claim 19 are not understood as to how they address the rejection.

Claim 20: it is argued that the ions are the same as those in steps 1 and 4. The claims do not state this - therefore the argument is not persuasive.

Claim 25 it is argued that the expansion of the glass naturally relates to the 6th step. There is no "expansion" of the glass mentioned, therefore it doesn't relate to anything. IT is not understood what is meant by "naturally". The any relationship must be specified - even if it is natural.

Claim 26: the arguments address antecedent basis in the specification. This is irrelevant as to whether there is antecedent basis for in the claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
